HELLO: —

Once again we have the privilege of sending you our annual catalog, consisting of what we believe to be one of the finest and most complete list of Peonies, Iris, Daylilies and Oriental Poppies in these United States.

These flowers are without a doubt the most beautiful and satisfactory of all garden flowers. All are hardy and so easy to grow, they appeal to the beginner as well as the experienced gardener.

You will find both the new novelties for those who want the latest and also the many hundreds of exquisite kinds that are just a few years older, priced so low as to be available to the most modest purse. Many collection offers are listed for those who like to take advantage of bargain specials.

It is always a pleasure to welcome the many thousands of visitors who come every year to see our fields in bloom. We hope that you will be able to visit our gardens this blooming season. If you are an Iris fancier, you will find our fields of Iris in bloom in late May and early June. Most of our Peony varieties are usually in good bloom during the first two weeks of June, with some early double varieties and the single type blooming in late May. The latest blooming double peonies usually come into bloom the third week of June. The Oriental Poppies normally bloom during the first ten days of June in our gardens. Many of the very earliest Daylilies are blooming at the same time as the peonies, with the majority coming into bloom in July and the later varieties blooming during August and early September. Unusual extremes of the weather tend to advance or delay the blooming.

Drop us a card and we will advise you the best dates to view our fields.

Our gardens are located 4½ Miles East of Van Wert, Ohio, on U. S. 30 (The Lincoln Highway). South side of the road.

Yours for better gardening,

Wassenberg Gardens

Richard Miller, Owner

Japanese PEONIES

This type of Peony is very graceful in growth and quite different in type of flower. The flowers are single or semi-double with wide flaring petals of exquisite coloring and texture. The centers are usually a more or less compact mass of tiny petaloids, usually a color contrasting with the main petal color. Very charming color effects are found among them. Ideal for flower arrangements.

Fall Bloomers

The Iris in this group have a tendency to bloom in the fall as they do in the spring. Their blooming in the fall depends greatly on the Iris having adequate moisture during the summer months for new growth as well as having fall temperatures hold favorable for their fall blooming. They bloom after the dwarf Iris, filling the gap before the blooming of the regular tall bearded Iris. Every garden should have some of these fall blooming varieties.
